

Student Name: _____

American Writers Museum Student Materials
Independent Student Reflection

Directions: Answer the following questions independently to share your understanding on how writer's use aspects of their identity to inspire and influence their writing.

Think about the videos, discussions, and activities you've experienced in this part of the unit. What are the most important ideas that have stayed with you?

How do the authors' identities impact their writing?

Do you think authors have power? Why or why not?