

Educator Overview

Understanding Climate Change through Indigenous Basketry

Arizona State Museum

Educator Overview

Understanding Climate Change through Indigenous Basketry

Arizona State Museum

Audience	Grade levels 3-5	Subject Social Studies	Topics: Geography, Native People of the Southwest, Natural Resources, State History
Guiding Questions	Who are the Apache and where are they located? What major events have impacted their ability to maintain their culture?	What values inform the Apache way of life?	What natural resources do the Apache make use of to support their way of life?
Background Knowledge	None needed. Information sheet provided for teachers.
Content Topics	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Location of Western Apache Reservations 2. Apache Values: Mountain Spirits Story 3. Seasonal round of resources traditionally used by the Apache 4. Farming Practices 5. Agave Cultivation 6. Hunting Practices and Tools 7. Formation of Reservations (including information on Geronimo) 8. The Apache Today
Student Engagement	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Listening to a traditional Apache story 2. Analyzing maps 3. Exploring traditional resources and their uses 4. Watching short videos about Apache and US History 5. Learning about modern issues the Western Apache face, including contemporary pressures on traditional sacred lands

Educator Overview

Understanding Climate Change through Indigenous Basketry

Arizona State Museum

Other Notes (Supplies needed, independent vs. whole class engagement)	Students can do this kit independently or as a group with it projected. You may want to do a combination, with the videos being projected and independent student work for the other sections. Note there are additional resource links and worksheet activities provided under the online kit activities and in the Student and Educator Resources.
--	--