

Meaning, by Briana Faye

The faces I see fill my soul like waterfalls the best part of me cascading laughs, glowing eyes reflect life unexpected.

Self Care, by Briana Faye

Stargazing makes me remember that life and light exist within me even when I feel empty smiling I face the daybreak

Patience, by Briana Faye

Fog outside the door means that I should put on tea the world slows again today I breathe easier all my worries are for dawn
